Welcome
BEAUTIFUL BRIDE TO BE

Congratulations on your engagement, and thank you for considering me to be part of such a meaningful chapter in your life.

My approach to bridal makeup is rooted in softness, timeless beauty, and an effortless elegance.

It's never just about the makeup or the products;
it's about how you feel in the moment you step into becoming a bride.

With over twelve years of experience and hundreds of brides across Derbyshire and beyond, I specialise in creating makeup that enhances rather than hides...

Skin that looks luminous and fresh.
Eyes that feel soft yet captivating.
Makeup that feels undeniably you.

I draw inspiration from modern editorial beauty and the romance of real wedding moments—creating looks that are elevated, natural, and something you'll look back on with love, recognising your truest self.

Every wedding tells its own story, and it's my privilege to ensure yours is celebrated in the most calm, considered, and beautifully effortless way.

While I prepare your bespoke bridal quote, I hope these pages give you a glimpse into what it means to be a Lauren Victoria Bride—and the relaxed, refined experience that awaits you.

with love,

Lauren xo

the FINER DETAILS

Your Bridal Look

Every bride has her own style, and your makeup should reflect you. My job is to design a look that feels personal, flattering, and aligned with the mood of your day... whether that's romantic, modern, soft-focus, or something timeless and classic. Bridal makeup should enhance your natural beauty, not hide it. I create looks that feel polished and elevated, but still unmistakably you — glowing, confident, and comfortable from morning to night. Whether you're dreaming of a fresh, natural finish or something more glam and defined, I tailor every detail so it photographs beautifully and lasts all day. I also adapt each look to suit your bridal party — bridesmaids, mums, and anyone else getting ready with you. Everyone deserves to feel amazing on such a special morning.

The Preview

Your bridal preview is where your vision really comes to life. This relaxed, creative appointment gives us time to explore ideas, experiment, and shape your perfect look with intention. We'll talk through your inspiration and make sure everything feels like a true reflection of you. You'll leave feeling excited, reassured, and confident about how everything will come together on the day. If you can, arriving with lightly styled hair or tidy brows can help you visualise your full look — but absolutely no pressure. After your preview, you'll receive a list of the products we used, your chosen look, and tips for keeping your skin prepped in the lead-up to the wedding.

The Wedding Morning

Calm ~ Seamless ~ Intentional

Your morning sets the tone for your whole day, and I'm there to make it feel relaxed, enjoyable, and beautifully steady. With a structured timeline and a gentle flow to the morning, you'll have space for the moments that matter — excited chatter, quiet pauses, final touch-ups, and those little butterflies before you step into your dress.

From your first brushstroke to the last sweep of lipstick, everything is handled with care so you feel radiant, composed, and fully present as you walk down the aisle.
